Bullying is recognised by St John's Upper Holloway CE Primary School as being a form of child on child abuse; children can abuse other children.

- Abuse is abuse, and it should never be tolerated or passed off as "banter", "just having a laugh" or "part of growing up".

- We recognise that even if there are no reports of bullying, it does not mean it is not happening, and it may be the case that it is just not being reported.
- All victims will be taken seriously and offered appropriate support, regardless of where the abuse takes place.

School Ethos

St John's Upper Holloway CE Primary School community recognises that all forms of bullying, especially if left unaddressed, can have a devastating effect on individuals; it can create a barrier to learning and have serious consequences for mental wellbeing.

By effectively preventing and tackling bullying our school can help to create a safe and disciplined environment, where pupils are able to learn and fulfil their potential.
