2. RESPONSIBILITIES OF PARENTS AND CARERS

- Actively support your child's learning by showing interest in what your child does at School. Support all home-School initiatives such as reading each day with them, writing a comment in their Reading Record and ensuring that they complete their homework and hand it in on time.
- Read all letters, texts and/or emails what are sent from School and keep up to date with School events. Try to attend as many School events as you are able to, particularly Parents Evenings. The School uses ParentMail to send messages.
- Respect children and adults – their race, religion, gender and explain to your child that they must do likewise.
- Ensure your child is ready to start their day at School each morning. Make sure your child gets the right amount of sleep at night, has a breakfast that will sustain them through the morning and that they have all the items that they need for School Each day, including their reading book and the Reading Record book.
- Ensure that your child arrives in School on time and in good health. If your child is ill, please call the office each morning of their absence.
- Ensure that your child is dressed in the correct school uniform (including for PE) And that all clothing and personal property is clearly marked with their name.
- If you have any questions or concerns about aspects of the School, please come And speak to your child's Class Teacher or a member of the School's Leadership Team. We have an open-door policy and like to address any issues before they become more serious.
- Be prepared to discuss any unacceptable behaviour with your child's Class Teacher or the Head Teacher. This includes their behaviour online and the expectations that are set out on the Acceptable Use Agreement form.
- Explain to your child/ren that they must do nothing to disturb the learning of other children.
- Inform the School as early as possible about anything happening in your child's home/community life which might affect their behaviour at School.
